Walk On Items:	From Rachel Ribar "I know that finding concession volunteers can be tough sometimes. I'm the treasurer for the Band Aides. I'm wondering if the band students or parents could help out. You'd have another pool of people to reach out when you're in a bind. And if a band student or parent volunteers at the concession stands, the athletic boosters could send a donation for that students band account. Let me know your thoughts on this. I talked with Dave Haugh, the band director, before reading out, so feel free to check in with him or me as well, if you have questions or want to talk through logistics." Venmo for Sadies	Decision: Denied. Currently coverage is ok. National honor society may be picking up some shifts Katie: Set up Booster Venmo

Entertainment Suggestions

I know music is usually done, has anyone ever looked into a comedy show? Not sure what that would cost or if the environment is right for it since I have never been to the Booster Bash due to it always falling on Youth State Wrestling Weekend.

Music in background with maybe another wine/beer tasting like the first booster bash as "something to do". More of an MC with more games/activities.

Depends on location

I think if we went Capital Room then we could "class it up" a bit. If not, local band works great.

Food Suggestions

I think people like the vendor/food truck options, this gives more of a variety.

One food truck?

I liked the food trucks

Food truck, pizzas

Depends on location (Capitol Room would have a different feel than Johnson Hall)

BamSota BBQ again!

Food trucks are great for Johnson Hall. I just heard great things about Sadaka's Deli in Mankato. Having options is key.
